Root Sounds Keynote

100,000 and a minimum at 60,000, so that maintaining only the minimum in peace, as we do now, when war threatens the president may begin preparation by filling the ranks to the maximum, without waiting until after war has begun, as he had to wait in 1898.

The first administration of McKinley fought and won the war with Spain, put down the insurrection in the Philippines annexed Hawaii, rescued the legation in Peking, brought Porto Rico into our commercial system, enacted a protective tariff and established our national currency on the firm foundations of the gold standard by the financial legislation of the 56th Congress.

The present administration has reduced taxation, reduced the public debt, reduced the annual interest charge, made effective progress in the regulation of trusts, fostered business, promoted agriculture, built up the navy, reorganized the army, resurrected the militia system, inaugurated a new policy for the preservation and reclamation of public lands, given civil government to the Philippines, established the republic of Cuba found it to us by ties of gratitude, of commercial interest and of common defense, swung open the closed gateway of the isthmus, strengthened the Monroe Doctrine, ended the Alaskan boundary dispute, protected the integrity of China, opened wider its doors of trade advanced the principle of arbitration and promoted peace among the nations.

The work is not fully done; policies are not completely wrought out; domestic questions still press continually for solution; other trusts must be regulated; the tariff may presently receive revision, and if so, should receive it at the hands of the friends and not the enemies of the protective system; the new Philippine government has only begun to develop its plans for the benefit of that long-neglected country; our flag floats on the isthmus, but the canal is yet to be built; peace does not yet reign on earth and considerate firmness backed by strength are still needful in diplomacy.

The American people have now to say whether policies shall be reversed, or committed to unfriendly guardians; whether performance, which now proves itself for the benefit and honor of our country shall be transferred to unknown and perchance to feeble hands.

No dividing line can be drawn athwart the course of this successful administration. The fatal 14th of September, 1901, marked no change of policy, no lower level of achievement. The bullet of the assassin robbed us of the friend we loved; it took away from the people the president of their choice; it deprived civilization of a potent force making always for righteousness and for humanity. But the fabric of free institutions remained unshaken. The great party that William McKinley led wrought still in the spirit of his example. His true and loyal successor has been equal to the burden cast upon him. Widely different in temperament and methods, he has proved himself of the same elemental virtues—the same fundamental beliefs. With faithful and reverent memory he has executed the purposes and continued unbroken the policy of President McKinley for the peace, prosperity and honor of our beloved country. And he has met all new occasions with strength and resolution and far-sighted wisdom.

As we gather in this convention our hearts go back to the friend—the never to be forgotten friend, whom when last we met we acclaimed with one accord as our universal choice to bear a second time the highest honor in the nation's gift; and back still, memory goes through many a year of leadership and loyalty.

How wise and how skillful he was! how modest and self-effacing! how deep his insight into the human heart! how swift the intuitions of his sympathy, how compelling the charm of his gracious presence! He was so unselfish, so thoughtful of the happiness of others so genuine a lover of his country and his kind. And he was the kindest and tenderest friend who ever grasped another's hand. Alas, that his virtues did plead in vain against cruel fate!

Yet we may rejoice that while he lived he was crowned with honor; that the rancor of party strife had ceased; that success in his great tasks, the restoration of peace, the approval of his countrymen, the affection of his friends—gave the last quiet months in his home at Canton repose and contentment.

And with McKinley we remember Hanna with affection and sorrow—his great lieutenant. They are together again.

But we turn as they would have turned, to the duties of the hour, the hopes of the future; we turn as they would have us turn, to prepare ourselves for struggle under the same standard borne in other hands by right of true inheritance. Honor, truth, courage, purity of life, domestic virtue, love of country, loyalty to high ideals—all these combined with active intelligence, with learning, with experience in affairs, with the conclusive proof of competency afforded by wise and conservative administration, by great things already done and great results already achieved—all these we bring to the people with another candidate. Shall not these have honor in our land? Truth, sincerity, courage! these underlie the fabric of our institutions. Upon hypocrisy and sham upon cunning and false pretense, upon weakness and cowardice, upon the arts of the demagogue and the devices of the mere politician—no government can endure in which the people do not believe.

and trust. Our president has taken the whole people into his confidence. Incapable of deception, he has put aside concealment. Frankly and without reserve, he has told them what their government was doing, and the reasons. It is no campaign of appearances upon which we enter, for the people know the good and the bad, the success and failure, to be credited and charged to our account. It is no campaign of sounding words and specious pretenses, for our president has told the people with frankness what he believed and what he intended. He has meant every word he said, and the people have believed every word he said, and with him this convention agrees because every word has been sound Republican doctrine. No people can maintain free government who do not in their hearts value the qualities which have made the present president of the United States conspicuous among the men of his time as a type of noble manhood. Come what may—come what may in November, God grant that these qualities of brave, true manhood shall have honor throughout America; shall be held for an example in every home, and that the youth of generations to come may grow up to feel that it is better, than wealth, or office, or power, to have the honesty, the purity and the courage of Theodore Roosevelt.

So Deceptive

Many Clarksburg People Fail to Realize the Seriousness.

Backache is so deceptive. It comes and goes—keeps you guessing. Learn the cause—then cure it. Nine times out of ten it comes from the kidneys.

That's why Doan's Kidney Pills cure it. Cure every kidney ill from backache to diabetes.

Here's a Clarksburg case to prove it. Mrs. S. N. McClaskey, wife of S. N. McClaskey, carpenter, of 744 Mulberry street, says: "For some time Mr. McClaskey complained of pain in his back and other symptoms of kidney complaint. Often the pain was torturing to stoop or lift and if he even remained long in one position dull aching, very difficult to describe and harder to endure, ensued. As time passed each succeeding attack was more prolonged and more pronounced until they continued for a week or ten days at a time, rendering Mr. McClaskey unable to go about. Learning about Doan's Kidney Pills, he went to Wells & Haymaker's drug store for a box and tried them. This remedy acts directly upon the kidneys. You can tell that from the action and condition of the kidney secretions. When they are rendered normal, backache ceases, at least, this is the result to my husband's experience with the remedy."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

Thrown From a Wagon.

Mr. George K. Babcock was thrown from his wagon and severely bruised. He applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely and says it is the best liniment he ever used. Mr. Babcock is a well known citizen of North Plain, Conn. There is nothing equal to Pain Balm for sprains and bruises. It will effect a cure in one-third the time required by any other treatment. For sale by Stone & Mercer.

Notice.

All persons using street sprinklers are hereby notified that they cannot flush the streets nor pavements around or about their business places. Sprinkling sufficient to lay the dust admissible only. All violators will be prosecuted, according to provisions in the city charter, covering this subject.

City Health Officer.

Triumphs of Modern Surgery.

Wonderful things are done for the human body by surgery. Organs are taken out and scraped and polished and put back, or they may be removed entirely; bones are spliced; pipes take the place of diseased sections of veins, antiseptic dressings are applied to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries before inflammation sets in, which causes them to heal without maturation and in one-third the time required by the old treatment. Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is an antiseptic and when applied to such injuries, causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and soreness. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the inconvenience and suffering which such injuries entail. For sale by Stone & Mercer.
